

CBORD named Microsoft Gold Certified Partner

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Tuesday, February 21, 2006

Ithaca, NY: The CBORD Group, Inc. of Ithaca, NY has announced that it has been named a Microsoft® Gold Certified Partner. “Gold certification within Microsoft’s Smarter Retailing and Smarter Hospitality initiatives is an important step for any tech company. It proves that CBORD has reached the highest level of competence and expertise in working with Microsoft products within its industries,” says Tom Litchford, director and industry manager for Microsoft’s Retail and Hospitality Industry Unit. “In recognition of this, we provide our Gold Certified Partners special software licensing, training, marketing tools, technical support, and many other tools designed to improve operations and customer satisfaction.”

CBORD is the world's largest supplier of foodservice software, nutrition service software, campus-wide ID card programs, cashless dining, and housing management systems. Use of Microsoft tools such as .Net and the Microsoft SQL Server database make it possible to deliver reliable, state-of-the-art products such as NetMenu®, NetCatering®, and NetNutrition®.

“This is a major milestone for CBORD,” says Tim Tighe, president and CEO of CBORD. “Microsoft is an integral player in our success. It is important for us to anticipate our customers’ future needs, and Microsoft technologies keep us on the cutting edge of our ever-evolving markets.”
